

Fairy Birthday Wishes

Another year has hurried by
And to your house again I fly
To wave my wand with birthday cheer,
Not that you will see me, dear,
For I'm invisible to all;
However, you might hear me call,
If you listen carefully,
My voice is jingle-jangully,
Like a tiny fairy bell
And it will say, "I wish you well,
I wish you such a happy day
And lots of love from all the fey."
