

Goodness me my dear, Another tooth already! It seems like only yesterday that I picked up the last one! Thank you so much for giving me this one too. I wonder how many more you've got to fall out. Have you ever counted? You're growing up so quickly but I can tell you'll always appreciate a little bit of magic, no matter how old you get to be. What a lovely person you are! Thanks again for the tooth and sweet dreams. Love, The Tooth Fairy x
