

Well, well, well, another tooth my dear!

Thank you so much for leaving it out for me to collect... I shall make good use of it.

Don't forget to keep on brushing the ones you've got left. Twice a day is the secret to a gorgeous sparkling smile!

I must flutter away now but I shall be back if you lose any more teeth and are kind enough to think of me.

Lots of love,

The Tooth Fairy x
