

Well now my dear,
here I am again,
picking up another of your teeth.
It's amazing how quickly time flies - and how fast you are growing up! I'm very pleased to see how well you've been looking after your teeth...

Keep up the good work!
I must be on my way now, but it has been lovely to see you again and thank you for this latest tooth. It will be very useful to me.

Lots of love,

The Tooth Fairy
