

Now then my dear,
My fairy helpers have told me that you've got a wobbly tooth, but that you've been worried I didn't know about it. Well, worry no more! I have many magical ways of knowing everything about your teeth and as soon as the loose one falls out, I'll be ready to fly over and pick it up. Make sure you look after it until then, won't you? (I've heard you're very good at brushing your teeth so I'm sure you will.)

I have to fly away now I'm afraid, because I'm writing this whilst sitting on a raincloud and to be quite honest, it's rather cold and damp!

Love from
The Tooth Fairy
