

Now then my dear,
I have heard on the fairy grapevine that you have accidentally lost your tooth. Well it happens from time to time and you mustn't worry at all. I shall keep my fairy eyes peeled for it - and if you find it first, just hang on to it until next time. I'm sure one of us will come across it eventually!

Well done for brushing your teeth regularly by the way. My goodness they're positively gleaming!! Do keep up the good work, won't you?

Lots of love,
The Tooth Fairy
