

Hello my dear!
I'm writing
this little note to say thank you for the lovely, shiny tooth you left me.
I am on my way home now, flying high above the clouds, but the North Wind has kindly promised to blow this note all the way back to your home!
Thank you for being asleep when I came round and for clearing your teeth so regularly. Keep up the good work!

THE NORTH
WIND

Love, The Tooth Fairy
