

Hello my dear!

 Happy, or should I say "hoppy" Easter?! I'm dropping off your eggs right now and even though I'm in a bit of a hurry, I couldn't leap away without scribbling you this little note to say well done for being so good. You have been eggcellent all year! Taking aside, I'm so very proud of you. Sleep well and have a wonderful day tomorrow.

★ All my love,

★ The Easter Bunny
