

I know it's not quite Christmas, but I wanted to scribble you this note to say well done for trying your best all year. I'm ever so proud of you and I know all the people around you are too. I've put a big gold star next to your name to remind me to bring you something lovely on Christmas Eve. I can't wait! Remember to be asleep though, won't you?
Lots of love,
Father Christmas
