

Hello my dear!

Are you looking forward to Christmas? I am - although I'm ever so busy. However, I wanted to take the time to write you this quick note to remind you to be especially good between now and then. I have already had several reports from my elves about how good you can be when you try - and I would like to see many more! I'm afraid I must get back to work now, because I have to feed the reindeer and polish my sleigh. Do make sure you're asleep when I drop off your presents... and enjoy the Christmas holidays!

Lots of love,
Father Christmas x
