

The letter from Santa below is for a child who has not been very well behaved. It is focussed on a fresh start and is meant to encourage better behaviour in a positive way. Santa hopes you find it useful and sends you his love!

You may print this image for your own personal use but it may not be used commercially nor on any other website without our written consent.

