

Dear Father Christmas,
I've been as good as I could all year and I'm really hoping you'll bring me some presents. I know you can't always manage everything but these are the things I would like most:

A large, white, rounded rectangular area with a subtle shadow, intended for the child to write their list of desired gifts.

Thank you very much and wishing you a very merry Christmas!

Signed: