Christmas House,
Icicle Lane,
The North Pole.

Wow!

A little robin tells me you've got a key worker in the family. How wonderful! And how proud you must be! Haven't they all been doing a fantastic job of looking after people this year? I know you're very proud and so am I.

You've been so good this year and I'm proud of you, too. My reindeer agree, in fact they say they like you more than a million carrots, and believe me that's a huge compliment because carrots are their favourite thing in the world.

Have a magical Christmas!
With lots of love,

Father Christmas
