The North Pole.

Hello my dear!

Are you looking forward to Christmas? I can't wait, and neither can my reindeer. However, I wanted to take a moment to remind you to be good. I know it isn't always easy, but will you try your best for me? I very much want to bring you some presents on Christmas Eve, so I need you to make it onto my Nice List.

My reindeer are already looking forward to coming. Rudolph has planned out route and he and all the other reindeer have been getting fit by going out flying every morning before breakfast. They can zoom through the clouds even faster than those big metal sky-boats you call aeroplanes! So we should get to you in no time.

With lots of love and a ho ho ho!

Father
Christmas
