

Christmas House,
Icicle Lane,
The North Pole.

Now then my dear,

It's getting nearer and nearer to Christmas, isn't it? I hope you're being good. Everyone at my house is pushed off their feet. The elves are busy wrapping up millions of presents, the reindeer are out training to gallop around the world, and even the mice are doing their bit. They're very good at writing name tags and tying bows. I shall have to find them some treats to say thank you... and wish them a merry Christmouse! Ho, ho, ho!

Anyway, I can't wait to bring you your presents, so make sure you go to bed on time. And keep the Christmas spirit alive by being kind to others, won't you?

It makes me very proud.

Lots of love,

Santa Claus
